NMFP-AC

NAADAC MINORITY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM FOR ADDICTION COUNSELORS

NAADAC Minority Fellowship Program for Addiction Counselors (NMFP-AC)

Up to $18,000 Tuition Stipend Available for Master's Students

Program Information:

The NMFP-AC aims to reduce health disparities and improve behavioral health outcomes for underserved populations by increasing the number of culturally-competent Master's level addiction counselors qualified to serve minority and LGBT populations, and transition age youth (ages 16-25). The NMFP-AC provides tuition stipends of up to $18,000 per Fellow as well as additional training, professional development and mentoring. While students do not need to be a minority or LGBT to qualify, they must commit to providing addiction counseling services to underserved populations for six-months post-graduation.
