

Health Care Provider Virtual Training: Environmental Odors and Health

Thursday, June 12, 2025, 2:00-4:00 PM

CME credits are available.

This training will equip health care providers with the knowledge and skills to:

- Understand how environmental odors can impact health.
- Recognize common odor-related symptoms.
- Determine appropriate management strategies for affected patients.

Featuring:

Cyrus Rangan, M.D., F.A.A.P., F.A.C.M.T.

Assistant Deputy Director, Environmental and Occupational Health Center for Healthy Communities, California Department of Public Health

Evan Cohen, M.S.

Environmental Scientist, Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, Office of Environmental Justice and Climate Health

Scan QR Code or Click link to register <https://bit.ly/4jBhs9X>

The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health is accredited by the California Medical Association (CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health designates this live activity for maximum of 2 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Non-physician learners receive a Certificate of Attendance. Participation in CE coursework designated for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ is considered acceptable CE by the CA Board of Registered Nursing if the coursework pertains to the practice of nursing. Please contact your board with questions.

This activity is not commercially supported.

For more information or questions email rsobero@ph.lacounty.gov

