

Center for Community
Action & Training (CCAT)

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ACTION & TRAINING

Planning that Fits Your Community

One workshop, presented in four locations, designed to build skills in effective prevention planning

Monday, September 20, 2010: Gardena
Tuesday, September 21, 2010: Hollywood
Wednesday, September 22, 2010: Griffith Park
Thursday, September 23, 2010: Northridge

10 to 4p.m.

9:30 registration; 1 hour lunch break on your own

Participate in this hands-on workshop to learn:

- ◎ The Strategic Prevention Framework
- ◎ How Needs Assessments Can Guide Effective Prevention Planning
- ◎ A Data-Driven Process For Developing Evidenced-Based Prevention Plans

CCAT Trainers: Michael Browning and Angela Goldberg

For Details and Registration, visit www.ccat-ca.org

In order to provide this session to as many possible, please limit your registration to ONE representative per agency. If space allows, a second choice will be drawn from the waiting list.

This is a no-cost training provided through the Community Prevention Institute with funding from the California Department of Alcohol & Drug Programs. Registration is required.

Thanks to hosts for location and hospitality: Behavioral Health Services, Inc, LA Gay and Lesbian Center, Carol Liu, California State Senator, 21st District, Institute for Public Strategies and Tarzana Treatment Centers

